PRIZES WON AT QUICKSAND FAIR

(By Gray H. Williams)
The seventh annual fair held at Quicksand, sponsored by E. O. Robinson, Ft. Thomas, was the most successful of any that has ever been held. On Friday, Sept. 30, more than 1600 people attended the fair. In addition to the hundreds of people attending from Eastern Kentucky, the following people of other sections of the state and county attended: Pres. Frank L. McVey and Dean Thomas P. Cooper of the University of Kentucky; George Farrell, representing the U. S. Department of Agriculture; and E. O. Robinson, Ft. Thomas, in addition to visitors from Cincinnati, Louisville, Lexington and other points.
Dean Cooper pronounced the fair the most successful in the seven years of its history, both from the standpoint of quality and quantity of products and attendance.

Let's begin now to plan for a Letcher County fair in 1933.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

The Junior Woman's Club met on Wednesday afternoon in the club room. Mrs. L. Hays, sponsor for October, was in charge. The presiding officer was Miss Wilma Frazier. The club is making handkerchiefs for this month's work. Those present were: Misses Wilma Frazier, Janet Renaker, Nina Mullins, Dorothy Kilgore, May and Maude Webb, Sibyl Mullins, Cuba Mullins, Ella Jane Thompson, Madeline Franklin, and Bernice Collins.

The regular meeting of the Whitesburg Woman's Club will be held in the club room on Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

LETCHER STUDENTS AT STATE UNIVERSITY

Registration for the first term of the 1932-33 school year at the University of Kentucky closed Monday, Sept. 23, with a total of 2,612 students enrolled for classes.

Among those students who have matriculated at the University from Letcher County are:

Randall Adrian Leach, Seco; Jimmie Tice, Blackey; John Gay Webb, Whitesburg; L. W. Potter, Millstone; Sam Potter, Millstone; Earl H. Day, Whitesburg; Len Bianchi, Blackey; Eugene C. Adkins, Whitesburg; Lucille Hale, Millstone; Roy F. Hahr, Jenkins.

Mrs. Joe I. Day, of Neon, underwent a dangerous operation at Seco Hospital, Tuesday, which to all intents was successful. Reports say she is now coming along toward permanent recovery.

THIS WEEK IN POLITICS

If Mr. Roosevelt tore down anything on his "Winning the West" trip and especially in Iowa, Mr. Hoover went into that state this week to build it back. His speech at Des Moines Tuesday night, though lengthy was heard by millions and widely cheered by those who heard it in person. His policies as chief executive for the past three and one-half years and their effect upon the country was the chief topic of his talk. Just what effect it will have upon the campaign soon to end is yet to be seen.

Mr. Roosevelt arriving back in New York from his speaking tour in a dozen Western states, declared to his advisers and friends that his trip was a success from every angle. And that, too, is yet to be seen. The Democratic candidate will soon start on another speaking tour, swing into the South while it is believed Mr. Hoover will make a few other speeches.

The Democrats out in the state of New York are having a lot of political spats, often bordering onto deadlocks, trying to nominate a candidate for governor and other state offices. The present Lieutenant Governor under Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Lehman, will most likely be nominated. The nomination for United States Senator was offered to Alfred E. Smith, but he spurned the offer, and declared that the preferred to do his fighting down among the ranks. Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Smith are lined up for Mr. Lehman for governor.

In reading the newspapers you hear more about straw votes than anything else. Most of the great dailies are taking them and most of the weeklies. Up to this time the straws show a decided Roosevelt trend. This is even true in a number of the heretofore strong Republican states.

SUCCEEFUL CLINIC HELD AT HAZARD

Thursday, Sept. 29, the clinic for all crippled children in Perry, Letcher, Leslie and Knott counties was held at Hazard. Approximately 180 crippled patients were present. More than forty of these children were from Letcher County. Dr. R. T. Hudson, bone specialist, Louisville, was the examining physician. A great percentage of those who attended the clinic can be benefited by hospital treatment; these cases will be sent to hospitals as soon as there are vacant beds. This treatment and hospitalization is free to all children and young adults up to eighteen years of age, if they are unable to pay.

The personnel of the Health Unit is very grateful to the following persons who were kind enough to make possible the transportation of the crippled children from the health office to and from Hazard: Mrs. M.E. Moore, Mrs. Stephen Combs, Jr., Mrs. Sam Collins, Mrs. Emery L. Frazier, Judge and Mrs. J.D. Sergeant, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of Millstone, the public health nurses of the Consolidation Coal Company, J. D. Maggard and Miss Bird of Stuart-Robinson School.

All present had a very enjoyable day, and we feel that much good will be done by this clinic.

MRS. LIZZIE TACKETT, OF JACKHORN, DIES

At her home, early this week at Jackhorn, Mrs. Lizzie Tackett, near seventy, wife of Jesse Tackett, after several weeks of illness, passed away. She leaves a husband and several children, all grown. Mrs. Tackett was a daughter of the late Sammie Collier, and a brother to Enoch Collier of Millstone and Bill Collier of Lewis County. The remains were interred in the old family burying place on Millstone. The Eagle offers sympathies to all the family.

Bank Officers Elected

Directors of the new Whitesburg bank met Monday and elected M. K. Marlowe, president; B. C. Bach, vice-president and Herman Hale, cashier. No other officers will be chosen for the present. An effort is being made to secure quarters for the new bank in the old National Bank building, but so far the plan has not worked. Most likely it will. As yet it is not decided when the bank will open for business.

How To Vote In November

Very few persons have not thought of difficulties that may arise when they go to vote at the coming November election. For instance, in the first column on the ballot will appear the Democratic device, the rooster, and next to it will appear the log cabin, the Republican device. Under each of these will be printed the eleven names of Presidential Electors, and following these, below the words "For Congress", will appear the two parties' nominees for Congress. There are nine of these and they are all candidates from the state-at-large.

The voter who desires to vote the straight ticket of either party, of course, will place his cross in the circle under his party device. But, suppose that a Democrat wants to vote for Hillard H. Smith for Congress on the Republican ticket or some Republican wants to vote for Andrew J. May or John Young Brown on the Democrat ticket. Let me suppose that Tom Jones is a Democrat and he wants to vote for his friend, Mr. Smith. He places his stencil cross in the circle under the rooster and then goes over and votes in the square after Mr. Smith's name. What has he done? His vote will be counted for all the presidential electors, but for no Congressman on his ticket. Mr. Smith alone will get his vote for Congress. The way for Mr. Jones to do so as to get his vote counted is to first vote in the circle under his party emblem, then go down the line of Congressional names, voting in the square after each of them except one and then go over and vote in the square after his friend Smith's name. The same course must be pursued by any Republican who desires to vote for Mr. May or Mr. Brown.

Young Ralph Adkins returned from a Lexington hospital where he underwent a minor operation, and has been pronounced practically well.

Be manly, be honest now, be a Letcherite and a mountaineer. After declaring yourself all of these, then if every issue of your old county paper, having withstood the ravages of all these twenty-five years, is not worth a year's subscription and you don't want to pay it, get somebody to kick you right good, and after this, go away back and set down. When you are able to stand on your feet write us a postal or motion to us and we'll send you the Eagle six months for nothing.

BIG FAMILY —IF TRUE

Big newspapers are printing a picture purporting to show the family of John D. Sloan, of Sergeant, in which is shown thirty-four of the thirty-five of the children. Seeing is usually regarded as believing, but in this instance seeing still remains doubtful. The clipping of the picture we have before us is from the Los Angeles Times, away out on the Pacific coast. Mr. Sloan is shown in the picture but his wife, the second one, and a newly-born baby is not shown. The account says that Mr. Sloan has been married twice. By his first wife there were seventeen children, and by his last eighteen. According to the account, there have been four sets of twins and two sets of triplets, fourteen at five births.

Judge Elbertson Bentley of our town thinks that thirty-one or two years ago, while a Justice of the Peace, he married John D. Sloan and most likely his first wife.

LETTER OF THANKS

To our many friends in Whitesburg and in the county, we have been so shocked and grieved over the death and loss of our beloved husband and the head of our family, William H. Maggard, that we have failed to offer a word of thanks to our many friends for the kindness and help and sympathy shown us on account of his death. We know our neighbors and friends will miss him, but our loss in our family is almost too heavy to bear. Will was such a noble, sturdy man, such a loving husband and father, and such a counsellor in our home that we can never forget him. He loved his neighbors and friends and he was ever ready to do all he could for them. In our sadness and bereavement our friends did all they could for us. For everything they did our hearts go out in thankfulness to them. And we want to particularly thank Brothers Enlow and Caudill for their beautiful talks, prayers and songs. While they could do Will no good, they were precious balm to our wounded hearts.

In the hope of meeting our dear husband in that better home above and again extending our thanks to all, we are,
MRS. LULY MAGGARD.
And All the Children.

Big Pay-Day In Coalfields

Monday was pay-day for the coal companies in the Elkhorn field. The bank at Fleming paid out in payrolls over $10,000 in cash. This was by far the biggest in many months and is really encouraging, and mines up in this field are still working, in a number of instances, every day. Let us hope that the fall months stay open so that the Lake shipments of coal may continue. When the lakes freeze shipping stops, so we are told.

SHOWS NEED OF BANKING FACILITIES

In the three months ending September 30th, the postmaster in Whitesburg sold approximately forty thousand dollars worth of money orders, a great proportion of which was remittances to banks on the outside. Of course, cash was paid for these money orders. And this is probably small to the amounts that were remitted in checks and other forms. It would be fairly safe to say that no less than $100,000 went out of Whitesburg and the neighborhood to other banks during the past three months. The head of one of the best business firms remarked a few days ago that lack of banking facilities was costing his firm no less than $25.00 each month to transact business. And yet, there are those who argue that a neighborhood can get along reasonably well without banking facilities.

Mrs. Ritter Craft, Of Kona, Dead

Mrs. Ritter Craft, aged 37, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Craft of Kona, passed away Tuesday night, Sept. 20, at 8 o'clock. She had suffered for six months with a cancer, but she is now in that city where there will be no more sorrow or pain.

She professed a hope in Jesus early Saturday morning and her relatives and friends can have the sweet consolation that she is at rest with Jesus. She leaves four brothers: Wiley, of Fishpond; Willie, of Bilvia; John C. of Bilvia, and Buster, of Kona, and two sisters: Mrs. Sandy Adams, of Millstone; Mrs. Bill Johnson, of Fishpond; a daughter, Grace Adams, who we all know well; three sons, Wiley, Willie Mart and John H. Services were conducted by the Rev. Collier of Kona, and her body was taken to the Thornton Cemetery for burial late Wednesday. We know not why God took her, but He knows best.—A FRIEND.

OUR STRAW-VOTE BALLOT

In this issue of the Eagle and for next week will appear a straw ballot, which we want every one of our readers to use in voting. Vote and get your ballot to us. No name need be signed. Vote only one, and vote the way you intend to mark your ballot in November. We ought to get 2000 or more ballots back voted.

In our issue of the 20th and 27th we want to publish the result of this voting. Help us to get as large returns as possible. If you are not a subscriber to the Eagle you may be able to get a ballot. All ballots must come to the Eagle.

Aunt Sarah Bentley, visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Elsie Hall, at Wheeling, W. Va., accidentally fell down a stairway at that place and fractured her shoulder. She will be some time in recovering, it is reported.

BIG GUNS ARE COMING

October is to be shaken to its bottom by big guns loaded with political shot and shell. There'll be groaning elephants and he-hawing mules—yes the ideas of November are coming dangerously near and a number of uneasy ones will be beating the bushes to save their political scalps. It will be "save, save, or I perish. Save my chestnuts from the fire or they will be burned up." Yes, big buns are rolling this way to fire their broadsides and arouse the careless and the sleepy into action. Yes, even before this issue of the paper reaches you the Hon. James R. Garfield, son of one of our martyred presidents, will have set the echoes ringing and cheered the hearts of his hearers at Pikeville, and Hon. Maurice H. Thatcher will have tried his hand at bolstering enthusiasm in the old courthouse here. These two will speak for the Republicans. On next Wednesday, the 12th, the man who delivered the key-note speech at the big Democratic convention at Chicago in June, the Hon. Alben W. Barkley, will give an account of his stewardship in the courthouse here, and tell the hearers why they should let him succeed himself in the United States Senate. These two Kentuckians are among the State's best known men and both the nominees of their respective parties. Mr. Barkley has spoken here several times, while we believe Mr. Thatcher has not. Both have had many year's experience in the State and National legislation and they are both worth hearing.

At this time we do not know what others will be billed to speak here during October, except that on October 24, on Monday, Ex-Governor Edwin P. Morrow, the man who always provokes a laugh, a smile, a tear or a curse, will speak at the courthouse. Governor Morrow, whether you agree with him or not, is worth hearing. At all the speakings mentioned above it is probable that other speakers will take part, and besides at other times it is likely that candidates for Congress of both political parties will be making speeches, pleading for support here and at other places in the county.

AN EMBARRASSING SITUATION

This week John D. W. Collins, trustee of the Jury Fund for Letcher County, received a warrant drawn on the treasury of the state for the sum of $2150.95 with which to pay the men who did jury service at the August term Letcher Circuit Court. Across one end of the warrant was printed, "No funds with which to pay this warrant, and it bears interest payable semi-annually from this day until paid, September 30, 1932."—Elam Huddleston, Treasurer of Kentucky.

So far as we have heard, this is the first time in the history of the state that it has not in the treasury funds to pay for jury service at Circuit Courts, and it is an embarrassing situation. Mr. Collins cannot pay those who are due their per diem until he can get the money on this warrant. We understand banks will discount the warrant at 15 per cent, on the dollar and thus allow jurors 35 cents on each dollar due them. Just what the Trustee will do or what the jurors will require of him in the matter we do not know.

The new act of the Kentucky Legislature which extended the time from September 1 to November 1, for those who could do so to pay their taxes and take the two per cent discount most likely had much to do in depleting the State Treasury and besides this, those who pay taxes will naturally put off paying until the very last hour. Of course, those who think know the State Treasury has money only when it is collected in taxes and paid in by the sheriffs.

Last year hundreds of people in our county, in fact, more than a thousand who owned property and more than 1500 who paid only polls, could not and did not pay their taxes, and this year, unless there is a greatly improved condition, more will be unable to do so. The property on which the taxes were not paid was sold by the sheriff and bid in by the county and state, neither of which realized anything from the sale. The same was true in most all the counties of the state, and this had much to do in depleting the state's revenues. As stated, if this condition occurs again, and we say it is most probable, Kentucky will become more and more "in the red."

We well remember years ago and year after year when no mans property in our county was sold for taxes. Every property owner managed to skimp around somehow and have the money when the sheriff called on him for his taxes. To many it was often rather difficult for them to have the money. It was rather an insignificant sum compared to now, but it was about all the use people had for money. In those times all the delinquents we had were those who would not pay their poll taxes, and there was little difference between them and the vote-seller.

Taking it all in all and from the view-point that the Trustee of the Jury Fund cannot pay the Circuit Court jurors and the fact that the county cannot meet its financial obligations, it is a deplorable and embarrassing situation which will have to be met with chagrin and a determination to do better in the future.

New, Appetizing Meat Dishes For The Thrifty Housewife

MEAT dishes need not be expensive to be delicious. One of the most encouraging points about meat cookery is that a little ingenuity employed in their preparation produces pleasing variety of flavorful and highly palatable dishes. Success of the meat dish depends largely upon skill in seasoning, and the proficient woman keeps on hand sauces and seasonings necessary to make unusual dishes. Her pantry—or better still the shelf above her stove—contains Worcestershire and Beefsteak Sauce, Tomato Ketchup, Chili Sauce and Prepared Mustard. Even the most inexpensive cut of meat, when prepared in casserole dishes or braised with vegetables and seasoned with flavorful condiments, becomes a real delicacy. Tested recipes given below suggest many other excellent flavorful meat dishes:

Ham Roll with Tomato Juice: One large slice ham ½ inch thick; 1 cup bread crumbs or Rice Flakes; 1 tablespoon chopped onion; 1 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce; 1 teaspoon Beefsteak Sauce; ¼ teaspoon pepper; 2 tablespoons melted butter; milk to moisten crumbs; 1 cup Tomato Juice. Soak ham in water if salty. Make dressing of crumbs, seasonings and milk to moisten. Cover slice of ham with dressing, roll up like jelly roll (rolling from broad side) and tie or fasten with toothpicks. Put in roasting pan and sear on all sides. Pour Tomato Juice over meat and bake at 400° F. until tender.

German Meat Steak: One lb. veal cut ¾ inch thick; 2 tablespoons Pure Vinegar; 1 thick slice onion; pepper; flour; 1 cup Tomato Juice; ½ cup water; 1 teaspoon salt; ½ teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce.

Spinkle veal with vinegar, add onion and allow to stand about ½ hour. Sprinkle with pepper, dredge with flour and brown in heavy skillet. Add Tomato Juice, water, salt and Worcestershire Sauce and simmer or bake until veal is tender and the sauce surrounding it heavy and rich. Serve with red cabbage and deep dish apple pie.

Hamburger Steak Baked Sandwich Style: Two pounds freshly ground beef; 1½ teaspoon salt; 2 tablespoons flour; Prepared Mustard; ¾ cup parboiled onion rings. Add salt and flour to meat, mix thoroughly. Divide into equal parts. Shape each into a layer ½ inch in thickness. Spread thickly with mustard and cover mustard with onion rings. Top with the second layer of meat. Bake in a hot oven from ½ to ¾ hour, basting if necessary, with a few tablespoons warm water.

Order Letcher Circuit Court

Election Call For December 15, 1932

Astor Hogg, County Attorney of Letcher County, having heretofore filed before me as Judge of the Letcher County Court, an application by written petition signed by more than one hundred legal voters of Letcher County asking the court to call an election to be held on December 15, 1932, for the purpose of submitting to the legal voters of Letcher County the question "Are you for or against having a fiscal court composed of three commissioners and the County Judge of the County Court?"

The Court has carefully considered said application by petition and being advised, now orders and directs an election to be held throughout Letcher County on December 15, 1932, for the purpose of submitting to the legal voters of the county the following question, "Are you for or against having a fiscal court composed of three commissioners to be elected from the county at large and the County Judge of the County Court?"

The sheriff of Letcher County is hereby directed to open the polls at each and all the voting precincts in Letcher County for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of Letcher County, who are qualified to vote at elections for county officers upon the said proposition whether said county shall have a fiscal court composed of three commissioners to be elected from the county at large with the Judge of the County Court.

Said election on December 15, 1932, shall be held by such officers as would be qualified to hold election for county officers and it shall be held in accordance with the general election laws of the state.

This October 3, 1932.
JOHN D. SERGENT,
Judge Letcher Circuit Court

STATE OF KENTUCKY,
COUNTY OF LETCHER, Sec.

I, Cro C. Caudill, Clerk of the Letcher County Court, do certify that the foregoing order is a true and correct copy of the order of record in County Court Order Book No. 13, page 604, records of the Letcher County Court Clerk's office.

Given under my hand this October 4, 1932.

CRO C. CAUDILL, Clerk,
By Mrs. Riley Adams,
Deputy Clerk.

Pursuant to the filing of a petition signed by more than one hundred legal voters of Letcher County, an election has been called to be held on the fifteenth day of December for the purpose of taking the sense of the voters on the question, "Are you for or against having a fiscal court composed of three commissioners and the County Judge of the County Court?"

Kentucky Statutes provide that upon an application by written petition, signed by one hundred legal voters, it shall be the duty of the County Judge to call an election for the purpose above stated. Further provides that "if a majority of the legal votes cast at said election are in favor of the fiscal court of said county being composed of three commissioners, it shall be the duty of the County Judge, before the next regular election for county officers, to divide the county into three districts as nearly equal in population as practicable and possible, and at said election there shall be elected in the said county, by the qualified voters thereof, three commissioners, one from each district." Compensation for these commissioners, as I understand the law, will be the same as is now paid the Magistrates for their attendance upon the fiscal court.

The people will hear this matter fully discussed between now and the date of this election by those who are for and against the change to the commission form of government for counties. I suggest that those who are interested in the welfare of the county go fully into this subject and that they investigate how the commission form of government has worked in other counties in the state. I am advised by men in authority that those counties which now operate under the commission form of government are well managed and progressive counties. In calling this election, I have endeavored to do my duty as required by law.

Yours very truly,
JOHN D. SERGENT.

Our Announced Candidates

The 1933 Election For County Offices Is Near

Those so far to announce are given below:

FOR COUNTY COURT CLERK

To The People of Letcher County:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for County Court Clerk of Letcher County, to be voted for at the coming primary election in 1933. I am a young man, 26 years of age, and a native of your county. My father is General Adams, a son of Ben Adams of the lower Rockhouse section. My mother is a daughter of the late Elder Henry R. S. Caudill, whom a number of you knew in his lifetime. From my earliest boyhood I've struggled hard to get an education, and have succeeded fairly well in this. I am now teaching in the Eolia High School. I am the son of a Republican, have been reared that way, and I still cling to that faith. However, a great number of my close relatives and friends are Democrats. Of course I ask to be nominated on the Republican ticket when the primary comes, and even until that time I shall be asking for the support of all of you. If I am nominated I will endeavor to carry our ticket to victory in the following November.

Thanking my friends for the favors shown me in the past and hoping to merit the further confidence of all, I am,

LEE ADAMS.

Candidate For Jailer Announces

To The Voters of Letcher County:

In making this, my announcement for Jailer of Letcher County, to be nominated next year, I hope no one will call me an early bird. I've had it in mind some time and I am taking this opportunity to tell the people so. I am a native Letcher County woman and belong to one of the oldest families. The late Elisha Collins was my father. Uncle Jim Collins of Whitesburg is my uncle. I am the widow of Wiley Jenkins. With this information you will readily know who I am. I have never had an easy time but have been a hard worker all by life. If you nominate and elect me as your Jailer I will serve you honestly and earnestly. I have always clung to the Republican party and I will ask for the nomination from this party, but I shall expect and solicit the help of all.

Anticipating and inviting your friendship and favors, I am,
MRS. SALLY JENKINS

Announces For Tax Commissioner

To The Voters of Letcher County: Many citizens of Letcher County have asked me to make the race for Tax Commissioner of this county next year.

After carefully weighing the situation and giving due thought to the source of these requests, I have decided to make this announcement—that I will ask my party for the nomination for this office in the 1933 primary.

Later I will have much to say relative to valuation and taxation of our county property.

Respectfully,
DR. JOHN M. BENTLEY.

Gloria Marco, 10, Hollywood's Youngest Casting Directress

There should be a lot of pep in this skit, judging from the amount of sweets the girls have available for practice. Gloria Marco is shown in the inset.

Daughter of Fanchon-Marco Head Picks Girls For Units

Hollywood, Calif.:—Gentlemen and ladies; meet the youngest casting director in America, or for that matter, in the world.

She is Gloria Betsey Marco, daughter of Michael Marco of the producing combination of Fanchon and Marco, and she holds in the hollow of her chubby 10 year old hand, the immediate careers of almost 2000 principals and chorus girls.

In the big west coast studio where Fanchon and Marco ideas are developed, Gloria, with her notebook and pencil, has become a familiar sight. She's right on the spot when her daddy selects girls for the units and a wave of her pencil is sufficient to spell oblivion for someone whom she believes would be miscast. What's more, Mr. Marco relies implicitly on her judgment and ability to analyze the kind of stuff which makes "good theater." "She has not only helped select entire casts but prepared and executed ideas for costuming the units and for the scenic effects. Once she costumed and staged an entire Japanese unit from clothes and jirinishas down to the little tea houses and bridges.

As to her interest in the girls themselves—well believe it or not but little Gloria is said to have been the big factor behind the recent edict issued to all Fanchon and Marco units governing dieting fads.

"She read an article in a women's magazine," explained Mr. Marco, "which said that young women were doing themselves untold bodily harm by eliminating necessary foods, especially the energy foods such as candy, cake and desserts. So what did she do but touch me for a fiver and treat a bunch of the girls to candy, eclairs or what have you. She wanted to prepare a training regimen for units on the road but we let it go by giving the girls a lecture on eating the proper foods, before they leave the coast."

"Say," said Mr. Marco proudly, "I'll bet Gloria is responsible for the Fanchon and Marco girls eating more sweets than any other theatrical group."

"Which reminds me," chimed in Gloria, "wouldn't it be swell to work out an idea built around a plate of ice cream ten feet high?"

Thanking you for all past favors,

For Special Appetite Appeal

By Jane Rogers

THE most commonplace foods can be given a special appetite appeal by a little added thought and care in the preparation. Sometimes no more is required than a wise use of seasonings. A small amount of sugar, for instance, will help to restore the garden freshness of all the green vegetables. Again, a particularly tempting dish may often be achieved by the combination of two or more familiar ingredients.

In the secret of achieving such escapes from the ordinary routine lies many a famous cook's reputation for supreme excellence in the culinary art. The housewife who recognizes the value of this secret, and gives it practical application in her kitchen, is well on the road to establishing a similar reputation in her own circle.

Carrots Gervais

Cut twelve medium-size carrots into two-inch lengths. Cook until tender in salted water to which a teaspoon of sugar has been added. In the meantime, cook two chopped onions in melted butter until lightly browned. Mix with the carrots and dust with flour. Salt and pepper to taste. When the flour is thoroughly browned add a cup of soup stock. Cook gently for about ten minutes, and serve very hot.

County Attorney Has Word To Say

In this issue of the Mountain Eagle there appears a certified copy of an order entered by the Judge of the Letcher County Court calling an election for Letcher County to be held on December 15, 1932, for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of the county on the question whether we shall have a fiscal court composed of three commissioners and the county judge, instead of a fiscal court composed of eight magistrates, as at present.

In the event a majority of the voters that vote declare for the change, then he county judge will immediately enter an order laying off the county into three districts. Then at the November election, 1933, when all the county officers are elected, a commissioner will be elected from each district as laid off but the electorate from the entire county will vote for each commissioner. When elected, the commissioners will hold their offices for four years, and their compensation will be $6.00 per day each for every day they are engaged in holding fiscal court, which, by the way, is the same as the magistrates composing the fiscal court receive.

I am unreservedly in favor of the change to the commission form for the reasons I shall outline here before the election date. It might be well to mention, however, at this time that every day the board of magistrates meets it costs Letcher County $48.00. If we had the commission form it would cost the county $18.00 per day when the fiscal court meets, a saving of $30.00 per day on that score. In the year 1931 the Letcher Fiscal Court met 27 days at a cost of $1296.00 to the county. If we had had the commission form the fiscal court for that year would have cost $486.00, and the county would have been saved $810.00 that year. I have simply used the year 1931 as an illustration. The number of meetings of the fiscal court will run about the same for the other years.

The commission system has worked successfully in all the Kentucky counties that have it, and it is a significant fact that those counties having the commission form are not overburdened with debt. Responsibility is more definitely centered under the commission form.

This is a forward step for Letcher County, and I trust that the forward-looking people of Letcher County will get behind this proposition so that it will go overwhelmingly on November 15th. Later on I shall have more to say in support of the proposition.

ASTOR HOGG, County Attorney, Letcher County.

Miss Cornelia Engle, one of the field secretaries from the office of Rev. Henry H. Sweets, D. Our boys met defeat at the hands of the Hazard football team Friday afternoon, the score being 21 to 0 in Hazard's favor. However, we are not at all discouraged for we have great faith in our boys and in our efficient coach, Mr. Knox, and are confidently expecting several victories during the season just beginning.

The juniors, sophomores and freshmen have enjoyed class hikes to different points within the past ten days.

Jimmie Tice came home for the week-end and Mrs. Tice returned with him to Lexington, where they will do light house-keeping.

September 28 was a happy day for us, for at that time we moved into our new administration building. This is indeed a beautiful structure and when we look upon it and its splendid equipment we feel well repaid for the summer of hard work which it took to erect it. It is a building of which any school might be proud and our hearts are filled with thanksgiving that it is ours. We are planning to have our dedicatory services on October 28 and 29. On the evening of the former date we expect to have in the school dining room a Builders' Banquet to which have been invited all those who had any part in the construction of the new building. An interesting program is being prepared and Prof. M. E. Ligon of the University of Kentucky has accepted our invitation to deliver the address of the occasion. On the following morning Rev. Homer McMillan, D. D., of Atlanta, executive secretary of the Assembly's Home Mission Committee, will deliver the dedicatory address. Rev. E. V. Tadlock of Winchester will present the building to the committee, and George White, of Atlanta, who is responsible for our having a building of the fireproof type, has been invited to accept the building for the committee, of which he is a prominent member.
